

WINTEX AGRO PRIVACY POLICY

Data protection has always been important for Wintex Agro, and we have always been committed to keep your data safe. To fully match the new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which enters into force on May 25th, 2018 we have now updated our privacy policy. Below we will outline which data we collect, why we collect it, how we use and protect it.

1. Which data do we collect?

Wintex Agro collects your company's data such as:

- company name
- company address
- name of relevant contact person
- phone number
- e-mail address
- website address
- delivery address
- VAT number
- the company's account number, swift and iban
- information on payment transaction with Wintex Agro

2. How do we use your data?

Wintex Agro uses your data to fulfill business tasks such as

- processing orders and arrange shipment
- establishing agreements with your company
- financial transactions between our companies

3. How do we secure your data?

All information is kept within a secure server system and can only be accessed by required data processors. Third parties such as shipping companies or our bank do only get access to your data as far as it is necessary in order to fulfill relevant tasks as mentioned above.

4. Your rights

You can always be informed on which data Wintex Agro has collected, and you can at any time request that Wintex Agro fully deletes your data. Please feel free to contact us at any time for any additional questions or comments.
